ATTACHMENT A TO CONSENT ORDERS OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION

1. The Plaintiff, Commodity Futures Trading Commission and Defendants Martin Brown, Geoffrey Thompson and Ydiyell Howard, and Relief Defendant Javette King agreed to Consent Orders of Permanent Injunction entered by the Court in the above matter. This Attachment is incorporated and made a part of each of the Consent Orders entered by the Court.
2. Of the three victim accounts, two have been made whole by Stone. Specifically, Stone reimbursed the first victim account holder $248,289 and the second victim account holder $484,235.
3. The amount of losses and the recipients of restitution for the third victim account were not determined at the time the Consent Orders were entered.
4. The CFTC will submit a proposed distribution plan to the Court for its approval when there has been a determination of the amount of losses due the third victim account holder or other parties. The Monitor will distribute restitution payments pursuant to Court Order.
