FINAL DECISION

The parties have elected the voluntary decisional procedure. Under the voluntary decisional procedure, the parties waive the opportunity for an oral hearing, and the parties waive certain rights, including the right to receive a written statement of the findings of fact upon which the final decision is based and the right to appeal this final decision to the Commission and to the federal courts.

After carefully reviewing the parties' submissions, it is hereby concluded that the weight of the evidence supports the conclusion that respondent Alaron Trading Corporation violated CFTC rule 166.2 and Section 4b of the Commodity Exchange Act, and that this violation proximately caused $3,662.50 in damages.<sup>1</sup> Accordingly, Alaron Trading Corporation is ORDERED to pay to Robert S. Young reparations of $3,662.50, plus $50 in costs for the filing fee.

Dated May 19, 2003.

Philip V. McGuire,
Judgment Officer

<sup>1</sup> The weight of the evidence does not support a conclusion that Barry Isaacson violated nay provision of the Act, or any Commission rule.
