RE: CFTC Regulation 40.6(a) Certification. Amendment to CME/CBOT/NYMEX/COMEX Rule 535 (“Responsibility of Floor Traders and Floor Brokers”). NYMEX Submission No. 15-169 (3 of 4)

Dear Mr. Kirkpatrick:

Chicago Mercantile Exchange Inc. (“CME”), The Board of Trade of the City of Chicago, Inc. (“CBOT”), New York Mercantile Exchange, Inc. (“NYMEX”), and Commodity Exchange, Inc. (“COMEX”) (collectively, the “Exchanges”) hereby notify the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“CFTC” or “Commission”) that they are self-certifying an amendment to Rule 535 (“Responsibility of Floor Traders and Floor Brokers”) to eliminate a reference to fines that would be assessed in circumstances where a floor broker or floor trader failed to have a designated representative available on the trading floor to resolve outrades from the previous trading day. CME Clearing has additionally confirmed that it has not had any issues with respect to brokers or firms resolving outrades in a timely manner, and the fines set forth in Rule 535 have not been assessed for many years. For these reasons, the Exchanges are eliminating the fining reference from the Rule.

The amendment to each Exchange’s Rule 535 appears in Exhibit A, with deletions overstruck, and will become effective on May 20, 2015.

The Exchanges reviewed the designated contract market core principles (“Core Principles”) as set forth in the Commodity Exchange Act (“CEA” or “Act”) and identified that the amendment to Rule 535 may have some bearing on the following Core Principles:

Availability of General Information: As required by this Core Principle, the Exchanges will issue a Special Executive Report to the marketplace prior to the amendment becoming effective.

Disciplinary Procedures: Given the significant reduction in the number of unmatched trades, CME Clearing has determined that the fine language is no longer warranted. Should CME Clearing identify an issue with respect to floor brokers or floor traders not having a designated representative available on the trading floor to resolve outrades as required by the Rule, such failure could be referred to the Market Regulation Department in the event the floor broker or floor trader failed to rectify the situation. The referral to Market Regulation could result in subsequent disciplinary action pursuant to Rule 432.

The Exchanges certify that this submission has been concurrently posted on the Exchanges’ website at <http://www.cmegroup.com/market-regulation/rule-filings.html>.

If you require any additional information, please e-mail CMEGSubmissionInquiry@cmegroup.com or contact the undersigned at 212-299-2200.

Sincerely,

/s/Christopher Bowen
Managing Director and Chief Regulatory Counsel

Trading Qualifications and Practices

(deletions are ~~overstruck~~)

535. RESPONSIBILITY OF FLOOR TRADERS AND FLOOR BROKERS

Every floor trader and floor broker shall assist his clearing member in the clearing of his trades. Every floor trader and floor broker must leave contact information with the clearing member through which or for which he has traded in order that he may be contacted during the balance of the day in the event there is a discrepancy in the clearing of his trades.

Each floor trader and floor broker or his designated representative must be available on the trading floor to resolve outrades in contracts in which he executed trades on the previous day no later than 30 minutes prior to the opening of the relevant market (or at such other times as may be designated by Exchange officials). If the trader or broker or his designated representative is not present during such period, the clearing member through which or for which the trader or broker has traded shall be authorized to resolve any outrade in the manner it deems appropriate, but such resolution shall not be determinative of the liability of any party to the outrade.

~~A floor trader or floor broker who fails to comply with this rule may be assessed a fine of $1,000 for the first violation, $2,000 for a second violation within 30 days of the first violation and $3,000 for a third and each subsequent violation within 30 days of the first violation. Fines imposed pursuant to this schedule are final and may not be appealed.~~
