Re: Amendments to Chapter 7 and Related Exchange Licensing Rules
Submission Pursuant to Section 5c(c)(1) of the Act and Regulation 40.6(a)

Dear Mr. Kirkpatrick:

Pursuant to Section 5c(c)(1) of the Commodity Exchange Act, as amended (the “Act”) and Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“Commission”) Regulation 40.6(a), ICE Futures U.S., Inc. (“IFUS” or “Exchange”) hereby self-certifies the amendments to Exchange Rules 7.00 et seq., Rules 3.16, 8.17, 9.19, 9.24 and 12.10, Coffee “C” Resolution No. 1(IX), Cocoa Resolution No. 2(IX), FCOJ Resolution No. 1(V), and Standing Resolution R-7 (collectively the “Amendments”), which are set forth in Exhibit A. As described in detail below, the Amendments provide the Exchange with direct authority to (i) establish eligibility criteria and application procedures for Exchange licenses, (ii) approve, deny, suspend or cancel Exchange licenses; and (iii) sanction Exchange licensees. In association with the Exchange licensing powers described above, the amendments also disband the Warehouse and License Committee (W&LC”) and establish a special review committee and process for persons aggrieved by certain Exchange licensing decisions.

The procedures for licensing individuals and firms engaged in the storage, grading and handling of cocoa, coffee, cotton, sugar and frozen concentrated orange juice (“FCOJ”) for deliveries against the Exchange’s futures contracts are set forth in Chapter 7 of the Rules. The authority to approve, deny, suspend or terminate such licenses and the authority to sanction such licensees for violations of Exchange Rules is currently vested in the Board of Directors (“Board”) and/or the W&LC. As a practical matter, the vast majority of the decisions involving Exchange licenses are codified in Chapter 7 and require little or no exercise of judgment (e.g. the approval/denial of an application to operate a licensed warehouse because the applicant meets/fails to obtain the proper insurance coverage, bonding or the facility passes/fails inspection). Referring such readily discernable issues to the Board and/or the W&LC, when they can easily be handled by staff, creates unnecessary administrative burdens and delays in the licensing process. As a result, the authority to grant license applications and renewals (the most frequently recurring licensing issue requiring Board approval), has already been delegated to the President under Standing Resolution R-7 and has been carried out by the staff successfully for many years.

The Amendments to Rules 7.00 et seq. further streamline the licensing activities of the Exchange. Specifically, the Amendments authorize the Exchange (rather than the Board or the W&LC) to:

- (i) establish eligibility criteria and application procedures for licenses [see amendments to Rules 7.05 - 7.09],
- (ii) approve, deny, renew, suspend or cancel Exchange licenses [see amendments to Rules 7.10 , 7.11, 7.13, 7.17, 7.18 and 7.19] ; and
- (iii) sanction licensees [see amendments to Rule 7.20].

Ancillary amendments to Rules 7.12, 7.15 and 7.21 authorize the Exchange to set licensing fees, compel testimony and establish recordkeeping requirements. Moratoriums on the receipt and delivery of products from certified warehouses and tank facilities generally occur in response to emergencies, such as hurricanes, floods and fires, and have impacted entire delivery points. As such, the Amendments reserve the declaration and handling of a moratoriums for the Board, and no change is being made to the Rules in this respect (see Rule 7.17).

Given the assumption of responsibility by the Exchange, the amendments also disband the W&LC (see deletion of Rule 3.16). In this regard we note that the Exchange has determined to do so, in part, due to potential conflicts of interest on the part of Committee members that have sometimes resulted in delays in convening the committee for certain matters. In order to ensure a right to impartial review, the Amendments provide applicants and licensees with the opportunity to appeal material adverse decisions made by the Exchange. Specifically, the denial of an application, the suspension or cancellation of any license or the imposition of a monetary penalty in excess of $1,000 may be appealed and will be heard, upon request, by a panel of disinterested persons (a “Special Committee”) who are appointed from a roster of eligible individuals that are familiar with Exchange licensing rules and industry standards (see new Rule 7.25). Each Special Committee will consist of at least three individuals selected by the President of the Exchange, on a case-by-case basis. ¹

In addition, the Amendments provide that a Special Committee, rather than the Board, will hear any appeal of the denial of an application to be a canola Merchant Participant under Rule 12.10; and that a Special Committee (rather than a special arbitration committee) will hear arbitration disputes relating to torn bags in coffee deliveries (see Rule 8.17). These conforming amendments have been made to ensure that all such appeals and arbitration disputes will be consistently handled by individuals who are knowledgeable in the field and familiar with Exchange Rules generally, including the licensing rules.

Finally, the Amendments provide that the Exchange, rather than the W&LC, will review proposed increases to storage and handling rates by individual licensees for Coffee, Cocoa and FCOJ (see Coffee “C” Resolution No. 1(IX), Cocoa Resolution No. 2(IX) and FCOJ Resolution No. 1(V); shall make determinations on complaints against cocoa samplers and graders (see Rule 9.19) and determine when to allow Cocoa to be rebagged (see Rule 9.24). A corresponding amendment to Standing Resolution R-8 deletes a provision which authorizes the President to grant licenses after receiving a recommendation from the W&LC, which is no longer necessary.

The Exchange provided a copy of the Amendments to the heads of the coffee, cocoa and cotton product committees, who expressed no opposing views. . Furthermore, the Exchange is not aware of any opposing views to the Amendments, which will become effective on May 31, 2019. The Exchange has reviewed the designated contract market core principles ("Core Principles") as set forth in the Act and has determined that the Amendments comply with the following relevant Core Principles:

COMPLIANCE WITH RULES

Rules 7.00 et seq., Rules 3.16, 8.17, 9.19, 9.24 and 12.10, Coffee “C” Resolution No. 1(IX), Cocoa Resolution No. 2(IX) and FCOJ Resolution No. 1(V), set forth procedures related to the licensing of individuals and firms engaged in the storage, grading and handling of cocoa, coffee, cotton, sugar and FCOJ; and the registration of Canola Merchant Participants for deliveries against the Exchange’s futures contracts; which will be enforced by the Exchange.

CONTRACTS NOT READILY SUBJECT TO MANIPULATION

The cocoa, coffee, cotton, sugar, FCOJ and canola futures contracts are not readily subject to manipulation as they are based on established and liquid underlying cash market. The Amendments relate to the process and procedures for Exchange licensing and related activities and will not impact the value of any of the aforementioned futures contracts. The Amendments do not alter any delivery procedures, delivery standards or quality standards. In addition, trading of the contracts will continue to be monitored by the Market Regulation Department.

POSITION LIMITS OR ACCOUNTABILITY

Positions in cocoa, coffee, cotton, sugar, FCOJ and canola futures contracts will continue to be subject to position limits and accountability levels, which are unchanged as a result of this submission. Such position limits are based upon the deliverable supply in the cash market.

FINANCIAL INTEGRITY OF CONTRACTS

The aforementioned futures contracts will continue to be cleared by ICE Clear U.S., a registered derivatives clearing organization subject to Commission regulation, and carried by registered futures commission merchants qualified to handle customer business.

The Exchange further certifies that concurrent with this filing a copy of this submission was posted on the Exchange's website, which may be accessed at (<https://www.theice.com/futures-us/regulation#Rule-Filings>).

(D) Alternate Compliance

(1) In the event that the Exchange licensed tank facility operator is not also the owner of the facility, the Licensee may notify the Exchange that in fulfilling its insurance and financial requirement standards under these Rules it is relying on an unlimited guarantee in a form satisfactory to the Exchange from the owner of the tank facility and/or insurance purchased by the owner of the tank facility; provided, however, that nothing in this alternative compliance arrangement shall be deemed to lessen the duties of a Licensee under the Rules.

(2) Any licensed tank facility in meeting Working Capital, net worth and letter of credit (but not performance bond) requirements may provide substituted compliance by an Affiliate of the licensed tank facility provided that such Affiliate executes and delivers an unconditional guarantee in such form and with such safeguards as are satisfactory to the [~~Warehouse and License Committee~~] Exchange.
