Re: Amendments to Precious Metal Contract Exchange Member Fee Program
Submission Pursuant to Section 5c(c)(1) of the Act and Regulation 40.6

Dear Mr. Kirkpatrick:

Pursuant to Commission Regulation 40.6(a), ICE Futures U.S., Inc. (“IFUS” or “Exchange”) submits, by written certification, notice that the Exchange is amending the Precious Metal Futures Contract Exchange Member Fee Program (“Program”) to convert the average daily volume requirement into a monthly volume requirement and to extend the term through June 30, 2016, as set forth in Exhibit A.

The Program, which was launched on June 30, 2014 and set to expire on June 30, 2015, offers market participants that are members of ICE Futures US or other exchanges the ability to earn discounted Exchange and Clearing fees for all proprietary volume in Precious Metals futures and options and NYSE Arca Gold Miner’s Index futures. Currently, each month Program participants are entitled to receive discounted Exchange and Clearing fees for their proprietary traded volume in the respective contract, based upon their average daily volume (“ADV”) in the respective track in that month (see Exhibit A).

An amendment to the Program changes the volume discount requirements from ADV levels to fixed monthly volume levels. The amendment is being made in order to make the program easier to administrate. The new monthly levels were set by multiplying the current ADV level by the average of 20 business days in a calendar month. In addition, the Exchange is also amending the Program to extend it through June 30, 2016.

The Exchange certifies that the Program complies with the requirements of the Commodity Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. In particular, the amendments comply with Core Principle 4 (Monitoring of Trading), Core Principle 9 (Execution of Transactions) and Core Principle 12 (Protection of Market Participants). The Program does not impact order execution priority or otherwise give participants any execution preference or advantage. In addition, the Exchange’s Market Regulation Department actively monitors for trading abuses using electronic exception reports and will take appropriate action against any participants engaging in market abuses.

The Exchange further certifies that, concurrent with this filing, a notice of pending certification was posted on the Exchange's website. A copy of this submission may be accessed at (<https://www.theice.com/notices/RegulatoryFilings.shtml>). The Exchange is not aware of any opposing views with respect to the amendments, which will become effective on June 9, 2015.

EXHIBIT A

ICE Futures U.S., Inc. Precious Metal Contract Exchange Member Fee Program

Program Purpose

The purpose of the Program is to incentivize volume in the covered contracts, to increase the overall liquidity of the products to the benefit of all market participants.

Product Scope

Mini Gold and 1000 oz. Silver futures and options contracts and NYSE Arca Gold Miners Index futures contracts (collectively, “the small-size contracts”) and 100 oz. Gold and 5000 oz. Silver futures and options contracts (collectively, “the large-size contracts”).

Eligible Participants

Any entity that is a member of a qualifying derivatives exchange may enroll in the program to earn discounted Exchange and Clearing fees for proprietary trading volume in program contracts.

Program Term

The start date for the Program shall be the date on which the program contracts are listed for trading on ICE Futures U.S. and the initial term of the program shall end on June 30, 201~~5~~6. The Exchange reserves the right to revise the terms of the program and to terminate the program upon notice to all current Participants.

Obligations

Participants are required to provide the Exchange with information acceptable to the Exchange detailing Participants’ trading activity under the program, and the Exchange may require an additional third party verification report.

Program Incentives

In each calendar month and separately for each set of contracts, a Participant who trades at least ~~[50]~~1,000 lots of small-size contracts during such month and/or at least ~~[50]~~ 1,000 lots of large-size contracts during such month for its proprietary trading account shall be eligible to receive the following discounted rates for their small-size and large-size proprietary volume in that set of contracts in that month:

Small-size contracts: Outright futures and all options 15 cents per side
 Explicit futures spreads 7.5 cents

Large-size contracts: Outright futures and all options 45 cents per side
 Explicit futures spreads 22.5 cents

Any volume that is eligible for discounted Exchange and Clearing fees in the programs listed below is not eligible for the above discount rate:

- Precious Metals Futures Designated Market Maker Program
- The Precious Metals Options Designated Market Maker Program

Monitoring and Termination of Status

The Exchange shall monitor trading activity and Participants' performance and shall retain the right to revoke Participants' status if it concludes from review that a Program Participant has failed to meet its obligations or no longer meets the eligibility requirements of this Program.
