On May 9, 2017, the Court granted in part and denied in part the Motion for a Supplemental Order of Permanent Injunction and Other Equitable Relief Against Defendants filed by Plaintiff U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“Commission”). (Dkt. No. 46.)

The Commission has now filed a motion seeking clarification of the Court’s Opinion and Order. (Dkt. No. 47.) No opposition has been filed to this motion.

For substantially the reasons stated in the Commission's memorandum of law (Dkt. No. 48), the motion for clarification is GRANTED.

Accordingly, the Court modifies its previous Opinion and Order by inserting “themselves,” after the words “Controlling or directly trading for” in section III.A.a. of the Opinion and Order. (Dkt. No. 47 at 5.) Accordingly, the beginning of the Court’s Permanent Injunction now reads:

“A. Permanent Injunction

Based upon and in connection with the foregoing conduct, pursuant to Section 6c of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1 (2012), Creagh and WSPM are permanently restrained, enjoined, and prohibited from directly or indirectly:

- a. Controlling or directing the trading for themselves, or on behalf of any other person or entity, whether by power of attorney or otherwise, in any account involving commodity interests; . . .”

The Clerk of Court is directed to close the motion at Docket Number 47.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: June 15, 2017
New York, New York
