

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

CASE NO. 14-61125-CIV-ZLOCH

U.S. COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

vs.

O R D E R

MINTLINE, INC., f/k/a ALLIANCE
PRECIOUS METALS, INC., CINDY
VANDIVIER, a/k/a CINDY VANDIVEER, and PAUL VANDIVIER, a/k/a
PAUL VANDIVEER,

Defendants.

This matter came before the Court for an ex parte hearing on May 13, 2014, on Plaintiff U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission's (hereinafter "CFTC") Ex Parte Emergency Motion For A Statutory Restraining Order, Preliminary Injunction, And Other Equitable Relief (hereinafter "Motion") (DE 4) in the above-styled cause. The Court has carefully reviewed said Motion, the entire court file and is otherwise fully advised in the premises.

The Court, having heard the arguments of Plaintiff's counsel, finds that:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1 (2012);

2. Venue lies properly within this District pursuant to 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(e) (2012);

3. There is good cause to believe that Defendants Cindy Vandivier, Paul Vandivier, and their company Mintline, Inc. ("Mintline") (collectively, hereinafter "Defendants"), together with their agents, have engaged, are engaging, and/or are about to engage in acts and practices constituting violations of the Commodity Exchange Act ("CEA"), 7 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq., and CFTC Regulations ("Regulations"), 17 C.F.R. §§ 1.1, et seq., by, among other things, misappropriating customer funds and misrepresenting and omitting material information in connection with illegal, off-exchange retail commodity transactions;

4. Given the extent of Defendants' fraud, prior notice to Defendants of an asset freeze is likely to result in dissipation of Defendants' assets and assets under their control, making it more difficult for the CFTC to ultimately locate and recover customers' funds and for this Court to grant effective relief. Similarly, given the ease of destroying books, records, and other documents, an order prohibiting the destruction of relevant documents and granting the CFTC immediate access to inspect and copy those documents will increase the likelihood of a meaningful opportunity for the CFTC to not only identify and account for Defendants' assets but also to determine the full scope of Defendants' fraudulent scheme;

5. Thus, there is good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable damage to the Court's ability to grant effective final relief for Defendants' customers in the form of monetary or other redress will occur from the sale, transfer, assignment, or other disposition by Defendants of assets or documents unless Defendants are immediately restrained and enjoined by Order of the Court. Therefore, good cause exists for an ex parte freeze of assets owned, controlled, managed, or held by, on behalf of, or for the benefit of Defendants. Good cause also exists for entry of an ex parte order prohibiting Defendants and their agents from destroying relevant books, records, and other documents and/or denying agents of the CFTC access to inspect and copy those documents to ensure that CFTC representatives have immediate and complete access to same; and

6. Weighing the equities and considering the CFTC's likelihood of success in its claims for relief, the issuance of a statutory restraining order is in the public interest.

DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this Order, the following definitions apply:

7. The term "document" is synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of the term in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a), and includes, but is not limited to, writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, audio and video recordings, computer records, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained and translated, if necessary, through detection devices into reasonably usable form. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of the term;

8. The term "asset" means any legal or equitable interest in, right to, or claim to, any real or personal property, whether individually or jointly, direct or indirect control, and wherever located, including but not limited to: chattels, goods, instruments, equipment, fixtures, general intangibles, effects, leaseholds, mail or other deliveries, inventory, checks, notes, accounts (including, but not limited to, bank accounts and accounts at other financial institutions), credits, receivables, lines of credit, contracts (including futures or option contracts), insurance policies, and all cash;

9. "Defendants" shall mean and refer to not only Cindy Vandivier, Paul Vandivier, and Mintline, but also to their agents, servants, employees, assigns, attorneys, and persons in active concert or participation with any of the Defendants, including any successor thereof, and any d/b/a, successor, affiliate, subsidiary, or other entity owned, controlled, managed, or held by, on behalf of, or for the benefit of Defendants.

Accordingly, after due consideration, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that, to the extent Plaintiff U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission's Ex Parte Emergency Motion For A Statutory Restraining Order, Preliminary Injunction, And

Other Equitable Relief (DE 4), seeks an ex parte temporary restraining order, it is hereby GRANTED as follows:
