CONSENT ORDER OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION, CIVIL MONETARY PENALTY AND OTHER EQUITABLE RELIEF AGAINST DEFENDANT STUART PIPPIN

On August 29, 2005, Plaintiff, U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("Plaintiff" or "Commission") filed a Complaint for permanent injunction and other relief, and moved pursuant to Section 6c of the Commodity Exchange Act ("Act"), as amended, 7 U.S.C. §13a-1 (2002), for an Ex Parte Statutory Restraining Order and a Preliminary Injunction prohibiting Stuart Pippin, individually and doing business as Pippin Investments, ("Pippin" or "Defendant") from destroying any business records, books or documents or dissipating any assets. On the same date, the Court issued the Ex Parte Statutory Restraining Order.

On September 8, 2005, this Court issued an Order of Preliminary Injunction which, interalia, preliminarily enjoined Defendant from further violating the Act and Regulations, as alleged in the Complaint, ordered the maintenance of and access to business records, continued the freeze on Defendant's assets, and appointed a Monitor to take custody of those assets.

II. FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

12. The Court, being fully advised in the premises, finds that there is good cause for the entry of this Order and that there is no just reason for delay. The Court, therefore, directs the entry of findings of fact, conclusions of law, permanent injunction, and ancillary equitable relief pursuant to $6c and $6d of the Act, 7 U.S.C. $13a-1 (2002), as set forth herein.

A. FINDINGS OF FACT

- 13. From June 2004 through August 2005 ("the Relevant Period"), Defendant, while acting as a Commodity Pool Operator ("CPO"), accepted approximately $2 million from 35 members of the general public ("pool participants") to participate in a commodity pool that purportedly traded commodity futures contracts ("futures") on their behalf through a registered Futures Commission Merchant ("FCM"), Man Financial.
- During the Relevant Period, the Defendant directed pool participants to send their investment money to one or more bank accounts in the name of Pippin Investments. These bank accounts were, in fact, personal accounts held by Defendant jointly with his wife.
- 15. Defendant knew that the commodity pool he operated never had a trading account, or conducted any trading, at any FCM, including Man Financial.
- 16. After receiving funds from the pool participants, Defendant issued false account statements to the pool participants indicating that he was trading futures on their behalf and that the value of the pool participants' accounts had increased to more than $4 million dollars.

 Defendant knew that those statements were untrue.
- 17. Defendant returned approximately $337,500 to pool participants representing that the funds were trading profits; in fact, Defendant knew when he made these statements that he never traded any funds on behalf of the pool and there were no trading profits.

Case 1:05-cv-04120-JG-RML Document 12 Filed 04/12/2006 Page 5 of 14

- 18. Defendant misappropriated approximately $106,500 of pool participants' funds.
- 19. The balance of customer funds remained in Defendant's personal accounts and were never used for the pool's trading purposes.
 - 20. Pippin has never been registered with the Commission in any capacity.

B. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

- 21. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action and all parties hereto pursuant to Section 6c of the Act which authorizes the Commission to seek injunctive relief against any person whenever it shall appear that such person has engaged, is engaging or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation or order thereunder.
 - 22. Venue properly lies with this Court pursuant to Section 6c of the Act.
- 23. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the Defendant, who has acknowledged service of the Complaint and consented to the Court's jurisdiction over him.
- 24. The Commission and the Defendant have agreed to this Court's retention of continuing jurisdiction over each of them for the purpose of enforcing the terms of this Order.
- 25. By the conduct set forth in Section IIA above, Defendant violated Sections 4b(a)(2)(i) (iii) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §§6b(a)(2)(i) (iii) (2002), by, among other things, knowingly: (a) representing to pool participants that Defendant would engage in futures trading on behalf of pool participants, when in fact, he did not; (b) issuing false account statements to pool participants showing futures trading that never occurred and trading profits that were never achieved; and (c) misappropriating pool participants' funds.
- 26. By the conduct set forth in Section IIA above, Defendant violated Section 4m(1) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §6m(1) (2002), in that he used the mails or instrumentalities of interstate commerce in or in connection with his business as a CPO while failing to register with the Commission as such.

- 27. By the conduct set forth in Section IIA above, Defendant violated Sections 4o(1)(A) and (B) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. $\S6o(1)(A)$ and (B), by, among other things, knowingly: (a) representing to pool participants that Defendant would engage in futures trading on behalf of pool participants, when in fact, he did not; (b) issuing false account statements to pool participants showing futures trading that never occurred and trading profits that were never achieved; and (c) misappropriating pool participants' funds.
- 28. By the conduct set forth in Section IIA above, Defendant never established a separate pool entity nor any accounts in the name of the pool, accepted pool funds into accounts in his own name rather than accounts in the name of the pool, and commingled the pool funds with his own property, all in violation of Commission Regulation 4.20, 17 C.F.R. §4.20.
- 29. There is good cause for entry of an order permanently enjoining Defendant from engaging in future violations of the Act, requiring Defendant to pay restitution in the amount of $1,681,674.22 and a civil monetary penalty in the amount of $106,500 and for the other equitable relief included in this Order.
