CFTC Docket No. 19-27

ORDER INSTITUTING PROCEEDINGS PURSUANT TO SECTION 6(c) AND (d) OF THE COMMODITY EXCHANGE ACT, MAKING
FINDINGS, AND IMPOSING REMEDIAL SANCTIONS

I. INTRODUCTION

The Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“Commission”) has reason to believe that from in or about May 2017 through January 2018 (“Relevant Period”), John Lawrence (“Respondent” or “Lawrence”) violated Section 4c(a)(5)(C) of the Commodity Exchange Act (“Act”), 7 U.S.C. §6c(a)(5)(C) (2012). Therefore, the Commission deems it appropriate and in the public interest that public administrative proceedings be, and hereby are, instituted to determine whether Lawrence engaged in the violations set forth herein and to determine whether any order should be issued imposing remedial sanctions.

In anticipation of the institution of an administrative proceeding, Lawrence has submitted an Offer of Settlement (“Offer”), which the Commission has determined to accept. Without admitting or denying any of the findings or conclusions herein, Lawrence consents to the entry of this Order Instituting Proceedings Pursuant to Section 6(c) and (d) of the Commodity Exchange Act, Making Findings, and Imposing Remedial Sanctions (“Order”) and acknowledges service of this Order.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Respondent consents to the use of the findings of fact and conclusions of law in this Order in this proceeding and in any other proceeding brought by the Commission or to which the Commission is a party or claimant, and agrees that they shall be taken as true and correct and be given preclusive effect therein, without further proof. Respondent does not consent, however, to the use of this Order, or the findings or conclusions herein, as the sole basis for any other proceeding brought by the Commission or to which the Commission is a party or claimant, other than: a proceeding in bankruptcy or receivership; or a proceeding to enforce the terms of this Order. Respondent does not consent to the use of the Offer or this Order, or the findings or conclusions in this Order, by any other party in any other proceeding.

II. FINDINGS

The Commission finds the following:

A. SUMMARY

During the Relevant Period, Lawrence, a trader at a U.S. subsidiary of a global precious metals refiner and fabricator, engaged in numerous instances of the disruptive trading practice known as “spoofing” (i.e., bidding or offering with the intent to cancel the bid or offer before execution) involving silver futures contracts and gold futures contracts traded on the Commodity Exchange (“COMEX”), a futures exchange and designated contract market which is owned and operated by CME Group Inc. (“CME”). This conduct violated Section 4c(a)(5)(C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6c(a)(5)(C) (2012).

B. RESPONDENT

John Lawrence resides in New York, New York. Lawrence was employed as a trader for a U.S. subsidiary of a global precious metals refiner and fabricator from September 2014 through February 2018. Lawrence has never been registered with the Commission.

C. FACTS

From September 2014 through February 2018, Lawrence worked at a U.S. subsidiary of a global precious metals refiner and fabricator where he bought and sold physical precious metals and other commodities, including silver and gold, for the firm’s customers. As part of this job, Lawrence traded futures contracts, including the COMEX silver futures contract and the COMEX gold futures contract, to manage the risk associated with the inventory positions he obtained as a result of his purchase and sale of physical silver and gold.

Beginning in May 2017, Lawrence began placing bids and offers for COMEX silver and COMEX gold futures contracts with the intent to cancel those bids and offers before their execution. Lawrence’s trading pattern involved placing on one side of market a relatively small order, typically for one lot, that he wanted to get filled (“Genuine Order”). Lawrence then placed on the opposite side of the market a relatively large order, typically twenty lots, that he intended to cancel before execution (“Spoof Order”). Lawrence placed the Spoof Order knowing that this order would often induce other market participants to fill his Genuine Order. Lawrence then cancelled his Spoof Order within seconds of placing it, often immediately after he received a fill on his Genuine Order.

Between May 2017 and October 2017, Lawrence engaged in spoofing using this trading pattern on a small number of isolated occasions. Beginning in October 2017, Lawrence intensified his spoofing activity. By January 2018, Lawrence had placed hundreds of Spoof Orders for COMEX silver and COMEX gold futures contracts.

Lawrence’s employer suspended him from trading on or about February 20, 2018, shortly after it discovered Lawrence’s spoofing activity.

III. LEGAL DISCUSSION

Section 4c(a)(5)(C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6c(a)(5)(C) (2012), makes it unlawful for “[a]ny person to engage in any trading, practice, or conduct on or subject to the rules of a registered entity that . . . is, is of the character of, or is commonly known to the trade as, ‘spoofing’ (bidding or offering with the intent to cancel the bid or offer before execution).” See, e.g., United States v. Coscia, 866 F.3d 782, 792-93 (7th Cir. 2017) (holding that because the Act clearly defines spoofing, it provides adequate notice of prohibited conduct), cert. denied, 138 S. Ct. 1989 (2018).

As described above, during the Relevant Period, Lawrence placed bids and offers for futures contracts listed on COMEX, a registered entity, with the intent to cancel those bids and offers before they were executed. By engaging in this conduct, Lawrence violated Section 4c(a)(5)(C) of the Act. See CFTC v. Oystacher, 203 F. Supp. 3d 934, 942 (N.D. Ill. 2016) (denying motion for judgment on the pleadings, holding that allegations of placing “both bids and offers with the intent to cancel those bids or offers before execution” constitutes “trading behavior [that] falls within the Spoofing Statute’s defined prohibition”).

IV. FINDINGS OF VIOLATION

Based on the foregoing, the Commission finds that, during the Relevant Period, Lawrence violated Section 4c(a)(5)(C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6c(a)(5)(C) (2012).

V. OFFER OF SETTLEMENT

Lawrence has submitted the Offer in which he, without admitting or denying the findings and conclusions herein:

- A. Acknowledges service of this Order;
- B. Admits the jurisdiction of the Commission with respect to all matters set forth in this Order and for any action or proceeding brought or authorized by the Commission based on violation of or enforcement of this Order;
- C. Waives:
  - 1. The filing and service of a complaint and notice of hearing;
  - 2. A hearing;
  - 3. All post-hearing procedures;
  - 4. Judicial review by any court;
  - 5. Any and all objections to the participation by any member of the Commission’s staff in the Commission’s consideration of the Offer;

6. Any and all claims that he may possess under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 5 U.S.C. § 504 (2012), and 28 U.S.C. § 2412 (2012), and/or the rules promulgated by the Commission in conformity therewith, Part 148 of the Regulations, 17 C.F.R. pt. 148 (2019), relating to, or arising from, this proceeding;
  7. Any and all claims that he may possess under the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, Pub. L. No. 104-121, tit. II, §§ 201–53, 110 Stat. 847, 857–74 (codified as amended at 28 U.S.C. § 2412 and in scattered sections of 5 U.S.C. and 15 U.S.C.), relating to, or arising from, this proceeding; and
  8. Any claims of Double Jeopardy based on the institution of this proceeding or the entry in this proceeding of any order imposing a civil monetary penalty or any other relief, including this Order;
- D. Stipulates that the record basis on which this Order is entered shall consist solely of the findings contained in this Order to which Lawrence has consented in the Offer; and
- E. Consents, solely on the basis of the Offer, to the Commission’s entry of this Order that:
1. Makes findings by the Commission that Lawrence violated Section 4c(a)(5)(C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6c(a)(5)(C) (2012);
  2. Orders Lawrence to cease and desist from violating Section 4c(a)(5)(C) of the Act;
  3. Orders Lawrence to pay a civil monetary penalty in the amount of one hundred thirty thousand dollars ($130,000), plus post-judgment interest within ten days of the date of entry of this Order;
  4. Orders that Lawrence be prohibited from, directly or indirectly, engaging in trading on or subject to the rules of any registered entity (as that term is defined in Section 1a(40) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 1a(40) (2012)), for a period of four months after the date of entry of this Order, and all registered entities shall refuse him trading privileges during that period; and
  5. Orders Lawrence to comply with the conditions and undertakings consented to in the Offer and as set forth in Part VI of this Order.

Upon consideration, the Commission has determined to accept the Offer.

VI. ORDER

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

- A. Lawrence shall cease and desist from violating Section 4c(a)(5)(C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6c(a)(5)(C) (2012).
- B. Lawrence shall pay a civil monetary penalty in the amount of one hundred thirty thousand dollars ($130,000) (“CMP Obligation”), within ten days of the date of the entry of this Order. If the CMP Obligation is not paid in full within ten days of the date of entry of this Order, then post-judgment interest shall accrue on the CMP Obligation beginning on the date of entry of this Order and shall be determined by using the Treasury Bill rate prevailing on the date of entry of this Order pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961 (2012).

Lawrence shall pay the CMP Obligation and any post-judgment interest by electronic funds transfer, U.S. postal money order, certified check, bank cashier’s check, or bank money order. If payment is to be made other than by electronic funds transfer, then the payment shall be made payable to the Commodity Futures Trading Commission and sent to the address below:

(405) 954-1620 fax
9-AMC-AR-CFTC@faa.gov

- If payment is to be made by electronic funds transfer, Lawrence shall contact Marie Thorne or her successor at the above address to receive payment instructions and shall fully comply with those instructions. Lawrence shall accompany payment of the CMP Obligation with a cover letter that identifies the Respondent and the name and docket number of this proceeding. Lawrence shall simultaneously transmit copies of the cover letter and the form of payment to the Chief Financial Officer, Commodity Futures Trading Commission, Three Lafayette Centre, 1155 21st Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20581.
- C. Lawrence is prohibited from, directly or indirectly, engaging in trading on or subject to the rules of any registered entity (as that term is defined in Section 1a(40) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 1a(40) (2012)), for a period of four months after the date of entry of this Order, and all registered entities shall refuse him trading privileges during that period; and
  - D. Lawrence shall comply with the following conditions and undertakings set forth in the Offer:

1. Public Statements: Lawrence agrees that neither he nor any of his agents or employees under his authority or control shall take any action or make any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any findings or conclusions in this Order or creating, or tending to create, the impression that this Order is without a factual basis; provided, however, that nothing in this provision shall affect Lawrence's: (i) testimonial obligations; or (ii) right to take legal positions in other proceedings to which the Commission is not a party. Lawrence shall comply with this agreement, and shall undertake all steps necessary to ensure that all of his agents and/or employees under his authority or control understand and comply with this agreement.
2. Lawrence agrees that he shall not, directly or indirectly, for a period of four months starting from the date of entry of this Order:
  - a. enter into any transactions involving "commodity interests" (as that term is defined in Regulation 1.3, 17 C.F.R. §1.3 (2018)), for Lawrence's own personal account or for any account in which Lawrence has a direct or indirect interest;
  - b. have any commodity interests traded on Lawrence's behalf;
  - c. control or direct the trading for or on behalf of any other person or entity, whether by power of attorney or otherwise, in any account involving commodity interests; and
  - d. solicit, receive, or accept any funds from any person for the purpose of purchasing or selling any commodity interests.
3. Cooperation, in General: Lawrence shall cooperate fully and expeditiously with the Commission, including the Commission's Division of Enforcement, in this action, and in any current or future Commission investigation or action related thereto. Lawrence shall also cooperate in any investigation, civil litigation, or administrative matter related to, or arising from, this action.
4. Partial Satisfaction: Lawrence understands and agrees that any acceptance by the Commission of any partial payment of Lawrence's CMP Obligation shall not be deemed a waiver of his obligation to make further payments pursuant to this Order, or a waiver of the Commission's right to seek to compel payment of any remaining balance.
5. Change of Address/Phone: Until such time as Lawrence satisfies in full his CMP Obligation as set forth in this Order, Lawrence shall provide written notice to the Commission by certified mail of any change to his telephone number and mailing address within ten calendar days of the change.

The provisions of this Order shall be effective as of this date.

By the Commission.
