PRIVACY ACT NOTICE: The C	Commission's authority for so	oliciting this information is granted in	7 U.S.C. § 18 and Part 12 of the Commission's regulations. The information on this form is primarily used by the Commission's Office of Proceedings to determine if the complaint is sufficiently complete for further processing and to initiate and move forward a reparations proceeding. Information contained in the form and complaint may be used by the Commission during any and all phases of a reparations case including, but not limited to, discovery, litigation, appeals and in written opinions and orders. Information provided may be made public in accordance with provisions of the CEA and other applicable laws. Under "open government" principles and rules, the Commission generally posts final reparations and appellate decisions to its public website, which may result in the decisions being captured and displayed through Internet search engines. The information may also be disclosed to other government agencies or CFTC divisions, for example the Division of Enforcement, to meet their responsibilities assigned to them by law. It will be maintained and additional disclosures may be made in accordance with CFTC System of Records Notices, e.g., CFTC-3, Docket Files for Reparations and Administrative Adjudication and CFTC-29, Reparations Cases Closed in the Complaints Section, available on http://www.cftc.gov/Transparency/PrivacyOffice/SORN/index.htm. If you do not provide the requested information, the Office of Proceedings may not be able to process your complaint.
