The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's (SEC) and the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission's (CFTC) Offices of Minority and Women Inclusion invite you to attend a joint Attorney Career Forum highlighting the legal work performed by each organization to regulate the market space and protect investors.

What to expect:

- Opening remarks by SEC Chair Gary Gensler and CFTC Chair Rostin Behnam
- Three breakout rooms discussing career opportunities in enforcement (investigations and litigation); trading & markets and clearing & risk; and general law (Offices of the General Counsel and International Affairs), each with a panel of SEC and CFTC employees providing insight on attorney career paths within each agency
- A dedicated informational session highlighting internship programs and recent graduate programs for law students and recent graduates
- A look at upcoming opportunities for early-career and mid-career attorneys
