ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR AN EX PARTE
STATUTORY RESTRAINING ORDER, APPOINTMENT OF A TEMPORARY RECEIVER, AND OTHER EQUITABLE RELIEF

Plaintiff, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“Commission”), has filed a Complaint for Injunctive Relief, Civil Monetary Penalties, and Other Equitable Relief and moved, pursuant to Section 6c(a) of the Commodity Exchange Act (“Act”), 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(a), and in accordance with Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (“Rule 65”), for an ex parte statutory restraining order freezing assets, allowing inspection of records, and appointing a Temporary Receiver. The Court has considered the pleadings, declarations, exhibits, and memorandum filed in support of the Commission’s motion and finds that:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question jurisdiction) and 28 U.S.C. § 1345 (district courts have original jurisdiction over civil actions commenced by the United States or by any agency expressly authorized to sue by Act of Congress). 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(a) authorizes the Commission to seek injunctive relief against any person whenever it shall appear that such person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in any act or practice that violates any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order promulgated thereunder.

2. Venue lies properly within this District pursuant to 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(e).

3. The Commission has made a proper prima facie showing that since at least November 1, 2021, Defendants Trader Global Inc., a New Jersey corporation, and Trader Global Inc., a Canadian business organization (together, “Traders Global”), acting as a common enterprise and controlled by Defendant Murtuza Kazmi (collectively, “Defendants”), have entered into (i.e., acted as a counterparty to) leveraged foreign exchange and commodity transactions with retail customers, and that those transactions qualify as “retail forex transactions” and “retail commodity transactions” within the meaning of Regulation 5.1(m), 17 C.F.R. § 5.1(m), and 7 U.S.C. § 2(c)(2)(D)(i), respectively.

4. Further, the Commission has made a prima facie showing that Traders Global has never been registered with the Commission as a Registered Foreign Exchange Dealer (i.e., an RFED), nor has Trader Global enter into any of the retail commodity transactions on an exchange registered with the Commission.

5. Accordingly, there is good cause to believe that Defendants have violated, and continue to violate, Regulation 5.3(a)(6)(i), 17 C.F.R. § 5.3(a)(6)(i), by acting as a counterparty to its customers' trades without being registered as an RFED; and have violated, and continue to violate, Section 4(a) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6(a), by entering into, executing, and otherwise dealing in retail commodity transactions not on any exchange registered with the Commission.

6. The Commission has also made a proper prima facie showing that since at least November 1, 2021, Defendants made, with scienter, material misrepresentations and misstatements to customers and omitted material facts from customers in connection with the customers' transactions and regarding, among other things, Defendant Trader Global's role as counterparty to customers' trades, the source and basis of any customer profits, and deceptive devices designed to reduce the likelihood and amount of profitable trading by a customer.

7. There is also good cause to believe that Defendant have engaged, and are continuing to engage, in fraud involving retail foreign exchange ("forex") and retail commodity transactions in violation of Section 4b(a)(2)(A), (C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6b(a)(2)(A), (C), and Commission Regulation 5.2(b)(1), (3), 17 C.F.R. § 5.2(b)(1), (3).

8. There is also good cause to believe that it is necessary to preserve the status quo and prevent damage to the Court's ability to grant effective final relief for customers in the form of monetary or other redress will occur from the withdrawal, transfer, removal, dissipation or other disposition of funds, assets or other property ("assets"), and/or the destruction, alteration or disposition of books and records and other documents (“records”) by Defendants, unless Defendants are immediately restrained and enjoined by Order of the Court.

9. Therefore, there is good cause for the Court to freeze assets owned, controlled, managed or held by Defendants or in which they have any beneficial interest.

10. There is also good cause for the Court to prohibit Defendants from destroying, altering or disposing of records, and/or denying representatives of the Commission access to inspect records, when and as requested, to ensure that Commission representatives have immediate and complete access to those records.

11. There is also good cause for the appointment of a Temporary Receiver to take control of all assets owned, controlled, managed, or held by Defendants, or in which they have any beneficial interest (“Defendants’ Assets”), so that the Temporary Receiver may preserve assets, investigate and determine customer claims, determine unlawful proceeds retained by Defendants and amounts due to customers as a result of Defendants’ alleged violations, and distribute remaining funds under the Court’s supervision.

12. There is also good cause to require an accounting by Defendants to the Temporary Receiver to determine the location and disposition of customer funds.

13. There is also good cause to order repatriation of assets controlled by Defendants so that such assets can be controlled by the Temporary Receiver and to assure payment of restitution and disgorgement as authorized by the Court.

14. In summary, this is a proper case for granting a restraining order ex parte freezing assets, allowing inspection of records and appointing a temporary receiver. Moreover, there is also a reasonable likelihood that Defendants will transfer or dissipate assets or destroy or alter records. Therefore, the Court orders the following.

DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Order, the following definitions apply:

15. The term “assets” encompasses any legal or equitable interest in, right to, or claim to, any real or personal property, whether individually or jointly, directly or indirectly controlled, and wherever located, including but not limited to: chattels, goods, instruments, equipment, fixtures, general intangibles, effects, leaseholds mail or other deliveries, inventory, checks, notes, accounts (including, but not limited to, bank accounts and accounts at other financial institutions), credits, receivables, lines of credit, contracts (including spot, futures, options, or swaps contracts), insurance policies, and all funds, wherever located, whether in the United States or outside the United States.

16. The term “records” encompasses “documents” and “electronically stored information” as those terms are used in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a), and includes, but is not limited to, all writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, and other data or other data compilations—stored in any medium from which information can be obtained or translated, if necessary, into reasonable usable form. The term “records” also refers to each and every such item in Defendants' actual or constructive possession, including but not limited to: (i) all such items within the custody or control of any agents, employers, employees, or partners of the Defendants; and (ii) all items which Defendants have a legal or equitable right to obtain from another person. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate item within the meaning of the term. A record also includes the file and folder tabs associated with each original and copy.

17. "Defendants" means and refers to Traders Global Group Inc., a New Jersey corporation, d/b/a "My Forex Funds"; Traders Global Group Inc., a Canadian business organization; and Murtuza Kazmi.

RELIEF GRANTED

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

I) Asset Freeze Order Prohibiting the Withdrawal, Transfer, Removal, Dissipation, and Disposal of Assets

18. Defendants are immediately restrained and enjoined, except as otherwise ordered by this Court, from directly or indirectly withdrawing, transferring, removing, dissipating or otherwise disposing of any assets, wherever located, including Defendants' assets held outside the United States, except as provided otherwise in Sections IV, V, and VI of this Order, or as otherwise ordered by the Court;

19. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section I, at the request of the Temporary Receiver, Defendants and any other person who has possession, custody, or control of any of Defendants' funds, assets, or other property shall transfer possession of all assets subject to this Order to the Temporary Receiver in accordance with Section IV, V, and VI of this Order.

20. The assets affected by this Order shall include existing assets and assets acquired after the effective date of this Order.

II) Maintenance of and Access to All Records Relating to the Business Activities and Business and Personal Finances

21. Defendants are restrained from directly or indirectly destroying, altering, or disposing of, in any manner any records that relate or refer to the business activities or business or personal finances of any Defendants.

22. Representatives of the Commission shall be immediately allowed to inspect any records that, in part or in whole, contain, relate, or refer to the business activities or business or personal finances of the Defendants, including, but not limited to, both hard-copy documents and electronically stored information, wherever they may be situated and whether they are in the possession of the Defendants or others. To ensure preservation and facilitate meaningful inspection and review of these records, Defendants shall allow representatives of the Commission to make copies of these records, including complete forensic images of any devices containing any such records, and if on-site copying of these records and/or forensic imaging of these devices is not practicable, representatives may make such copies and/or forensic images off-site.

23. To further facilitate meaningful inspection and review, Defendants shall, absent a valid assertion by Defendant Kazmi of his right against self-incrimination under the Fifth Amendment, promptly provide Commission staff with:

- a. the location of all records relating or referring to the business activities and business and personal finances of the Defendants;
- b. all identification numbers and other identifying information for websites, cloud storage services, email and smartphone accounts, online chat and messaging services, and all accounts at any bank, financial institution, or brokerage firm (including any introducing broker or futures commission merchant) owned, controlled or operated by Defendants, or to which the Defendants have access; and
- c. all passwords to, and the location, make and model of, all computers and/or mobile electronic devices owned and/or used by Defendants in connection with their business activities and business and personal finances; or
- d. any consent required by a third-party service provider to access or obtain Defendants' electronic communications or other electronic records stored or maintained with a third-party service provider.

24. When inspecting and reviewing records and/or contents of forensic images that are subject to this Order, including those contained on computers and/or other devices, the Commission should undertake reasonable measures to prevent review of the Defendants' privileged communications and/or Defendant Kazmi's nonbusiness, nonfinancial materials by the Commission's attorneys and other staff who are part of the litigation team in this matter. Moreover, Defendants (or their counsel) shall promptly contact Plaintiff's counsel to assert any claims of privilege relating to the inspection and review of any records or contents of forensic images that are subject to this Order and promptly cooperate with Plaintiff's counsel to develop reasonable protocols to isolate and prevent disclosure of claimed privileged and/or other nonbusiness, nonfinancial materials to the Commission's attorneys and other staff who are part of the litigation team in this matter. Nothing herein shall excuse Defendants from full and immediate compliance with this Court's Order permitting Plaintiff to inspect and review the records and contents of forensic images which relate to Defendants' business activities and their business and personal finances, however.

III) Notice to Financial Institutions and Others that Hold or Control Assets or Records

25. To ensure the effectiveness of the asset freeze and pending further Order of this Court, any financial or brokerage institution, business entity, or person that receives actual notice of this Order and holds, controls, or maintains custody of any account or asset or other property of Defendants shall not, in active concert or participation with Defendants, permit Defendants or other persons to withdraw, transfer, remove, dissipate, or otherwise dispose of any of Defendants' assets, except as directed by further order of the Court.

26. Any financial or brokerage institution, business entity, or person that receives notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise shall not, in active concert or participation with any Defendants, directly or indirectly destroy, alter, or dispose of, in any manner, any records relating to the business activities and business and personal finances of any Defendant.

27. Furthermore, any such financial or brokerage institution, business entity, or person that receives actual notice of this Order and holds, controls, or maintains custody of any account or asset titled in the name of, held for the benefit of, or otherwise under the control of any Defendants, or has held, controlled, or maintained custody of any such account or asset of any Defendants at any time since November 1, 2021, shall not, in active concert or participation with Defendants, deny a request by the Commission to inspect all records pertaining to every account or asset owned, controlled, managed, or held by, on behalf of, or for the benefit of Defendants, including, but not limited to, originals or copies of account applications, account statements, signature cards, checks, drafts, deposit tickets, transfers to and from the accounts, all other debit and credit instruments or slips, currency transaction reports, 1099 forms, and safe deposit box logs. As an alternative to allowing inspection of records, a financial or brokerage institution, business entity or other person may provide copies of records requested by the Commission.

28. Furthermore, any such financial or brokerage institution, business entity, or person that receives actual notice of this Order shall:

- a. Within ten business days of a request by the Temporary Receiver, or such longer period specified by the Temporary Receiver, provide the Temporary Receiver with copies of all records pertaining to any account or asset owned, controlled, managed, or held by, on behalf of, or for the benefit of Defendants, either individually or jointly, including, but not limited to, originals or copies of account applications, account statements, signature cards, checks, drafts, deposit tickets, transfers to and from the accounts, all other debit and credit instruments or slips, currency transaction reports, 1099 forms, and safe deposit box logs; and

- b. Cooperate with all reasonable requests of the Temporary Receiver relating to implementation of this Order, including transferring Defendants' funds at the Temporary Receiver's direction, and producing records related to business activities or business or personal finances of Defendants' to the Temporary Receiver.

- j. Make payments and disbursements from the Receivership Estate that are necessary or advisable for carrying out the directions of, or exercising the authority granted by, this Order, provided that the Temporary Receiver shall apply to the Court for prior approval of any payment of any debt or obligation incurred by the Receivership Defendants prior to the date of entry of this Order, except for payments that the Temporary Receiver deems necessary or advisable to secure the Receivership Estate from immediate and irreparable loss; and
- k. - c. Provide the Temporary Receiver access to all records of accounts or assets of the Defendants held by financial or brokerage institutions

- a. - b. Possession and custody of records of the Receivership Defendants in connection with their business activities and business and personal finances, including but not limited to, all records of accounts, all financial and accounting records, balance sheets, income statements, bank records (including monthly statements, canceled checks, records of wire transfers, and check registers), client lists, title documents and other records of the Receivership Defendants;
- c. Possession and custody of all assets belonging to members of the public now held by the Receivership Defendants, except to the extent that

All keys, passwords, entry codes, and combinations to locks necessary to gain or to secure access to any of the assets or records of the Receivership Defendants related to their business activities and business and personal finances, including, but not limited to, access to the Receivership Defendants' business premises, means of communication, accounts, computer systems, mobile electronic devices, or other property; and
- e. Information identifying the accounts, employees, properties or other assets or obligations of the Receivership Defendants.

VII) Directive To Cooperate with Temporary Receiver

35. Absent a valid assertion by Defendant Kazmi of his right against self-incrimination under the Fifth Amendment, Defendants, and all other persons or entities served with a copy of this order shall cooperate fully with and assist the Temporary Receiver. This cooperation and assistance shall include, but not be limited to, providing any information to the Temporary Receiver that the Temporary Receiver deems necessary to exercising the authority as provided in this Order; providing any password required to access any computer or electronic files in any medium; disabling any two-factor authentication for accounts; providing any necessary consent to access electronic communications or other electronic materials maintained with third-party service providers; and discharging the responsibilities of the Temporary Receiver under this Order, and advising all persons who owe debts to the Receivership Defendants that all debts should be paid directly to the Temporary Receiver.

VIII) Stay on Actions Against the Receivership Defendants

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT:

36. Except by leave of the Court, during the pendency of the receivership ordered herein, the Defendants, and all other persons and entities shall be and hereby are stayed from taking any action (other than the present action by the Commission) to establish or enforce any claim, right or interest for, against, on behalf of, in, or in the name of, the Receivership Defendants, the Temporary Receiver, the Receivership Estate, or the Temporary Receiver's duly authorized agents acting in their capacities as such, including but not limited to, the following actions:

- a. Petitioning, or assisting in the filing of a petition, that would cause the Receivership Defendants to be placed in bankruptcy;
- b. Commencing, prosecuting, litigating, or enforcing any suit or proceeding against any of the Receivership Defendants, or any of their subsidiaries or affiliates, except that such actions may be filed to toll any applicable statute of limitations;

- e. Using self-help or executing or issuing, or causing the execution or issuance of, any court attachment, subpoena, replevin, execution, or other process for the purpose of impounding or taking possession of or interfering with, or creating or enforcing a lien upon any property, wherever located, owned by or in the possession of the Receivership Defendants, or any of their subsidiaries or affiliates, or the Temporary Receiver, or any agent of the Temporary Receiver; and
- f. Doing any act or thing whatsoever to interfere with the Temporary Receiver taking control, possession, or management of the property subject to the receivership, or to in any way interfere with the Temporary Receiver or to harass or interfere with the duties of the Temporary Receiver; or to interfere in any manner with the exclusive jurisdiction of this Court over the property and assets of the Receivership Defendants, or their subsidiaries or affiliates.

Provided, however, that nothing in this section shall prohibit any federal or state law enforcement or regulatory authority from commencing or prosecuting an action against the Receivership Defendants.

IX) Compensation for Temporary Receiver and Personnel Hired by the Temporary Receiver

37. The Temporary Receiver and all personnel hired by the Temporary Receiver as herein authorized, including counsel to the Temporary Receiver, are entitled to reasonable compensation for the performance of duties pursuant to this Order and for the cost of actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them for those services authorized by this Order that when rendered were: (1) reasonably likely to benefit the receivership estate; or (2) necessary to the administration of the estate. The Temporary Receiver and any personnel hired by the Temporary Receiver, however, shall not be compensated or reimbursed by, or otherwise be entitled to, any funds from the Court or the Commission. The Temporary Receiver shall file with the Court and serve on the parties periodic requests for the payment of such reasonable compensation, with the first such request filed no more than thirty days after the date of this Order and subsequent requests filed quarterly thereafter. The requests for compensation shall itemize the time and nature of services rendered by the Temporary Receiver and all personnel hired by the Temporary Receiver.

XIII) Service on the Commission

41. Defendants shall comply with all electronic filing rules and requirements of the U.S. District Court of New Jersey and shall serve all pleadings, correspondence, notices required by this Order, and other materials on the Commission by delivering a copy to Ashley Burden, Senior Trial Attorney, Division of Enforcement, Commodity Futures Trading Commission, Central Region – 77 West Jackson Blvd, Chicago Illinois, 60604, by electronic filing, e-mail, personal delivery or courier service (such as Federal Express or United Parcel Service) and not by regular mail due to potential delay resulting from heightened security and decontamination procedures applicable to the Commission's regular mail.

Should any party wish to file a memorandum of law or other papers concerning the issuance of a preliminary injunction against the Defendants, such materials shall be filed, served and received by all parties at least two days before the hearing ordered above.

XV) Force and Effect

43. This Order shall remain in full force and effect until September 12, 2023 unless extended further by order of this Court pursuant to Rule 65(b)(2), and this Court retains jurisdiction of this matter for all purposes.

IT SO ORDERED, at Camden, New Jersey on this 29th day of August, 2023.
