FINAL DECISION

The parties have elected the voluntary decisional procedure. Under the voluntary decisional procedure, the parties are principally responsible for developing the evidentiary record, the parties waive the opportunity for an oral hearing, waive the right to receive a written statement of the findings of fact upon which the Final Decision is based, and waive the right to appeal this Final Decision to the Commission and to the federal courts. See Commission Rules 12.100(b), 12.106(d) and Notice of Voluntary Proceeding (June 5, 2019).

After carefully reviewing the legal and evidentiary record, I find that Complainant has failed to establish by a preponderance of the evidence any violations of the Commodity Exchange Act or Commission regulations by

¹ The minimal record in this case is undisputed and establishes Complainant's claims were mooted after the institution of these proceedings. Furthermore, Complainant evidently does not intend to continue prosecuting his claims, as he has not responded to any written orders or notices sent to him by UPS since December 10, 2018, nor has he responded to several phone calls placed by this Office since the case was formally assigned to me.
