Event Question: Will [candidate] ([party abbreviation “R” or “D”]) win [state]’s United States Senate election in [year]?

Product Code: SR[two letter state abbreviation][last name initial of candidate]

For example: For a contract involving Mike Rogers in Michigan, the Product code would be: SRMIR

Instructions: The US Senate is composed of 100 Senators, two from each state. Every even numbered year, one third of these Senators are up for election. Citizens vote in the general election, with the candidate receiving the majority of votes becoming the Senator-elect. The general election is held on the first Tuesday in November of the election year, unless the first Tuesday is November 1st, in which case the election is held on the second Tuesday. The results of the general election are considered official once they have been certified by the Governor of the state, and countersigned by the Secretary of State for the state. On January 3rd of the year following the election, the US Congress convenes and new Senators are sworn in. The complete list of Senators is published in on the official Congressional website, Congress.gov, the following business day at 7:00 AM CT.

Underlying: The underlying is the political party whose members control more than 50 seats in the US Senate on January 3rd of the year following a Congressional election. The official list of US Senators is published to Congress.gov at 7 AM CT the following business day. Congress.gov can be accessed: Here. The “Find a Senator” dropdown lists current Senators by last name. The above link is provided for informational purposes only, the US Government may determine to publish the list of Senators in a different location at any time.

Source Agency: Congress.gov

Minimum Tick: The Minimum Tick size for the referred Contract shall be $0.01

Listing Cycle: ForecastEx will list one expiration of the US Senate Race Forecast Contract at any time. This contract will correspond to the next Congressional Election cycle.

Thresholds: For each contract expiration, thresholds will be listed at ForecastEx’s discretion.

Position Accountability: The position accountability level is 250,000 Forecast Contracts in any one Forecast Market.

Last Trading Time: 11:59:59 PM CT on the day preceding the General Election.

Payout Criteria: The Settlement Value of each US Senate Race Forecast Contract is $1.00 or $0 depending on the Outcome of the Event Question. If the Outcome of the Event Question is “Yes”, then holders of the “Yes” Position will be entitled to receive the Settlement Value of $1.00 per contract and holders of the “No” Position will receive $0.00. If the Outcome of the Event Question is “No”, then holders of the “No” Position will be entitled to receive the Settlement Value of $1.00 per contract and holders of the “Yes” Position will receive $0.00.

Resolution Time: 7:00AM CT on January 4th of the year following the general election.

Changes in Resolution Time: The Resolution Time of a Contract is dependent on the date that the US Senate convenes for a new Congress, the time the list of Senators is published to Congress.gov. There are circumstances where ForecastEx may change the Resolution Time of a Contract. In the event that the date that the Congress convenes is delayed, the publication of the Congressional Record is delayed, or there is ongoing litigation, or any other situation which could change the outcome of a race for US Senate, ForecastEx will delay the Resolution Time of the Contract until such time as the winner of the seat in the US Senate is clarified and the name of the Senator is published to Congress.gov. In this case, ForecastEx would release a public notice to its website informing Market Participants that the Resolution of the Contract has been delayed and release a second notice to its website informing Market Participants when the contract ultimately resolves.

Expiration Time: Same as Resolution time.

Settlement Time: Settlement for Resolved US Senate Race Contracts will occur after Resolution Time at 1:00 PM CT that same Business Day in accordance with ForecastEx Rule 603(b)(3).

Trading Restrictions: In Accordance with ForecastEx Rule 509, the following Persons are prohibiting from entering Bids or executing Pairs in US Senate Race Contracts:
