NAME: ROBERT E. O'GRADY

DOCKET NUMBER: STIPULATION 126

DATE: DECEMBER 7, 1970

DOCUMENT TYPE: STIPULATION OF COMPLIANCE

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

BEFORE THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE

In re: Robert E. O'Grady

Stipulation of Compliance Under the Commodity Exchange Act No. 126

The Secretary of Agriculture has reason to believe that Robert E. O'Grady has violated the provisions of the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U.S.C., Chapter 1) and the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture promulgated thereunder (17 CFR, Chapter 1). No complaint with respect to such violations has been issued and the said Robert E. O'Grady is desirous of disposing of the matter by entering into a stipulation of compliance as authorized by section 0.4(a) of the Rules of Practice under the Commodity Exchange Act (17 CFR, Part 0). Therefore, the said Robert E. O'Grady for the purposes of this stipulation of compliance and administrative proceedings under the Commodity Exchange Act and for such purposes only, stipulates the following facts are true:

(1) Robert E. O'Grady an individual whose address is 100 N. La Salle St., 4th Fl., Chicago, Ill. 60602 is now and was at all times material herein a registered floor broker under the Commodity Exchange Act and a member of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange, a duly designated contract market under the Commodity Exchange Act.

(2) The futures transactions hereinafter referred to relate to pork belly futures contracts on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange. Each of such contracts called for the delivery of 30,000 pounds of pork bellies. Such contracts could have been used for hedging transactions in interstate commerce in pork bellies, or for determining the price basis of transactions in interstate commerce in pork bellies, or for delivering pork bellies, sold, shipped, or received in interstate commerce.

(3) On February 14, 1969, Robert E. O'Grady assisted another broker to take the opposite side of a customer's order. Robert J. Murphy took the opposite side of a Richardson Securities, Inc., customer's order for the purchase of seven May pork bellies by entering into a transaction with Robert E. O'Grady who was acting for the account of Robert J. Murphy.

The Commodity Exchange Authority has advised Robert E. O'Grady that his actions as described above, were in violation of section(s) 13(a) of the Commodity Exchange Act and section(s) 1.38 of the regulations under the Commodity Exchange Act.

The said Robert E. O'Grady agrees to desist from such acts and practices in the future. He further understands and agrees that this stipulation, which the Secretary of Agriculture is accepting only as to the acts and practices set forth above, shall be admissible as evidence of such acts and practices in any future proceeding based upon acts or practices occurring subsequent to the date of his signing of this stipulation of compliance which may be brought against him by the Secretary of Agriculture under the provisions of the said Act. He also understands that it is the practice of the Commodity Exchange Authority to issue press releases on stipulations of compliance and to make them a matter of public record.
