RE: Exchange Certification and Notification of Launch Date for the New Hedgeable Dow Jones CME FX$INDEX™ Futures Contracts.
CME Submission 10-191

Dear Mr. Stawick:

Chicago Mercantile Exchange Inc. ("CME" or "Exchange") hereby notifies the Commodity Futures Trading Commission that Sunday, July 25, 2010, will be the launch date for the new Hedgeable Dow Jones CME FX$INDEX ("Dow Jones CME Foreign Exchange / U.S. Dollar") futures contract. This reconfigured contract replaces the former CME$INDEX which was delisted on Thursday, April 1, 2010. The appeal of the new index design is in its simplified construction that facilitates a ready hedge vs. a basket of CME FX futures contracts. CME certified rule amendments for the Dow Jones CME FX$INDEX futures contract in its previous CME Submission 10-162, dated Wednesday, June 9, 2010. CME Globex® trading for the new Dow Jones CME FX$INDEX futures contracts begins at 5:00 PM Central Time on Sunday, July 25, 2010, for the trade date of Monday, July 26, 2010.

Six March, June, September and December quarterly cycle contract months will be listed for trading for the new futures contract. The next March cycle contract month not yet listed for trading will be listed for trading on the business day following termination of trading for the nearby contract month.

Therefore, on Sunday, July 25, 2010, the initial contract months and listing cycle will be as follows:

Futures: Sep. 2010, Dec. 2010, Mar. 2011, Jun. 2011, Sep. 2011 and Dec. 2011.
