Mr. David Stawick Office of the Secretariat Commodity Futures Trading Commission Three Lafayette Centre 1155 21st Street, N.W. Washington, DC 20581

> RE: CME Rules 10104.D. and 10104.E. Submission No. 08-184

Dear Mr. Stawick:

Chicago Mercantile Exchange Inc. ("CME") hereby notifies the Commission that it has amended Rules 10104.D. and 10104.E. to eliminate references to former CME Rule 562 ("Speculative Long and Short Positions Same Expiration Month"). Rule 562 was deleted on November 29, 2007, in connection with the harmonization of the CME and CBOT Rulebooks, and the elimination of the references to Rule 562 were inadvertently omitted at that time.

The amendments appear on the next page, with deletions overstruck.

CME certifies that these changes comply with the Act and regulations thereunder.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact Robert Sniegowski, Associate Director, Market Regulation Department, at 312.648.5493 or me at 312.648.5422. Please reference CME Submission No. 08-184 in any related correspondence.

Sincerely,

/s/ Stephen M. Szarmack Director and Associate General Counsel

Retender

A clearing member representing a long that is assigned a Certificate may retender that Certificate. The following rules govern retender:

[1. - 3. are unchanged.]

4. A long assigned a Certificate must establish a short position in the delivery month and notify the Clearing House of retender by 4:30 p.m. on the business day following assignment. The short position may be established for the purpose of retendering without regard to the previsions of Rule 562.

[5. is unchanged.]

10104.E.

Reclaim

[The first paragraph is unchanged.]

The reclaiming short must have established a long position in the contract month and must issue a Reclaim Notice (on a form prescribed by the Clearing House) to the Clearing House by 5:00 p.m. on the day the Certificate is retendered. The long position may be established for the purpose of reclaiming without regard to the previsions of Rule 562.
